

SAMS® Accredited Marine Surveyor since 1998
 Designator Yachts and Small Craft
 Level III Certified Infrared Thermographer
 Fax: +001-954-337-0550
 222-2 University Blvd N.
 Jacksonville, Florida 32211-7534
 USA
 Email: jna2@allinson.com

Here is a check list that can be used to ensure the vessel is "Ready for Survey".

Task	Yes	No	Comments
Hull Identification Number present
USCG Official Number present
Survey Permission from Owner or Agent
Boat Yard/ Marina Notified
Boat Hauling Arranged
DC power available for testing of systems
AC power available for testing of systems
All electronics installed for survey
All items not included in the sale removed Engine(s) ready ... note should be cold at time of survey.
Potable water systems ready for survey
Bilges clean and dry for survey
Bilge covers removed for survey
Electrical Panels open for survey
Cabinets and lockers clear of gear
USCG required equipment onboard
Vessel Registration or Documentation Papers onboard
Current Insurance Policy for Vessel onboard
Personal Floatation Device(s) onboard
Throwable Flotation Device onboard
Sound Producing Device onboard
Bell for vessels over 40' onboard
Fire Extinguisher(s) fully charged & mounted
Backfire Flame Control for gasoline engines
Forced Ventilation for gasoline engines
Marine Sanitation Systems ready for survey
Posted Marine Pollution Placard
Posted No Oil Pollution Placard
Waste Management Plan for documented vessels over 40'
Single Sideband Radio License posted
Single Sideband Operators license posted
Navigation Lights operational
Visual Distress Signals (flares within expiration date)
Other Services Required	Yes	No	Comments
Sea Trial Needed
Captain for Sea Trial
Delivery Captain
Machinery Oil Analysis
Engine Survey
Sailboat standing rigging inspection
Sailboat sails inspection
Galvanic Corrosion Survey
Infrared Thermography Survey
Latent Moisture Survey
Audiogauge Hull Thickness Survey
Ultrasonic Leak Detection Survey
Operations manual for Systems and Maintenance			